

ChristPond Retreat Center

ChristPond
provides a secluded retreat venue to nurture spiritual growth and renewal.

When you find a place where God speaks to your heart, where you are comforted by the gift of time spent in nature and shared with other friends, family, or colleagues,
your life is changed, enriched, renewed,
and possibly transformed.

These are the powerful, quiet, growing experiences impacting those who take time to be renewed in the presence of God.

It happens at ChristPond.
It's life changing.
It makes a difference.

Grieving Through the Seasons... Saturday, August 24, 2019 is a day-long spiritual retreat for adults, of any and no faith tradition, who are grieving the death of a loved one, friend, or co-worker. The day will integrate patterns of the grieving experience with the rhythms and changes of the seasons. The day will include:

- ❖ Reflections
- ❖ Times of Silence
- ❖ Safe Spaces of Sharing
- ❖ Prayer & Meditation
- ❖ Journaling
- ❖ Creative Expression

Time, Cost and Registration

Registration and continental breakfast begin at 8:30am with the retreat program starting at 9:00am and ending at 4:30pm.

Fee is $45.00 which includes a continental breakfast, lunch, journal & materials. (No one will be turned away because of the inability to pay.)

The registration form must be completed and sent, with your fee, no later than (postmarked) Friday, August 16th

Presenters

Melissa Minkley, MSW

Is the cofounder of Healing Life's Losses and is a social worker with over 20 years of experience in psychosocial oncology and bereavement counseling. She has companioned adults and children in individual, support group, workshop and retreat settings focusing on enhancing ones holistic well-being. Her personal experience of loss has given Melissa insight into the impact grief has on individuals, families and friends.

Pete Reintl, CSG

Is the cofounder of Healing Life's Losses grief support services and is a companion and spiritual guide with over 30 years of pastoral ministry experience serving in various roles within faith and secular communities, retreat centers and funeral homes. He has spent the last 20 years dedicated to companioning those who are in life transition due to loss through support group facilitation, giving presentations and seminars, authoring articles, individual companioning, guiding retreats, as well as training others who wish to companion the bereaved. His background includes certification in pastoral ministry and spiritual direction. Having experienced several significant losses and his own life transitions, Pete brings with him a wealth of personal experience and wisdom, in addition to his professional and spiritual background in loss, grief and healing.
